BULLET SET OFF BY CAR FELLS WOMAN.

Drops Wounded When Trolley Wheel Explodes Cartridge Put on Track by Boys.

Small boys stole along Ninth avenue last evening and place? revolver car-tridges on the trolley tracks. Then they hid in a doorway at Fifty-second street to see what would happen when the cars came along.

About the same time Mrs. Dora Biabop left her home, No. 785 Ninth avenue take a car at the corner of Fiftysecond street. As chance would have it the first car that came was one on which her husband was conductor. When the car reached the corner there was a loud report and Mrs. Bishop fell with a bullet in the left side of the face. Bishop carried his wife to Roosevell Hospital, where the bullet was ex-tracted. Then the police began a search for the boys who had placed the cartridges on the rails.
